Prudential PE PLETT MTB Race: Win an unforgettable holiday

The Prudential PE Plett is easily one of the most scenic MTB races on the CSA calendar, but also one of the toughest. With just four days to cover more than 290kms and 4300m of climbing, the route is a challenging feat for even the most seasoned of riders.

In spite of the enormity of the challenge, there's something special about the Prudential PE Plett that keeps riders coming back year after year. Whether traversing through the lush green forests of the Tsitsikamma National Park, or pushing yourself to the limit for the title of King or Queen of the Mountain, there's well and truly something for everyone. All of which makes for an unforgettable experience, filled with memories that will undoubtedly last a lifetime.

And after completing this spectacular but gruelling race, there's no better way to reflect and reward yourself than by taking some time out, relaxing and allowing your body to fully recover. That's why we are especially pleased to announce that we have one more surprise in store for this year's riders: we're offering one lucky participant the chance to win a two-night stay for two people in a luxury suite at the Cederberg Ridge Wilderness Lodge.

The prize includes free transfers to and from the lodge (including flights from any of the major airports in the country), all meals, and a R1,000 gift voucher per person per night to spend on spa treatments or drinks. The winner will also be able to choose from a range of seasonal activities. These include guided walks through the Cederberg Wilderness Reserve, rock art excursions, wine tours, as well as boating in summer months. And in case you haven't quite gotten your fill of mountain biking, the Cederberg offers some amazing bike paths in and around the Reserve, making it ideal for those who prefer to explore the countryside on two wheels.

Competition entries are limited to riders participating in the 2021 Prudential PE Plett. To enter, simply post your favourite photos from the race each day on either Facebook, Instagram and/ or Twitter and tag :

- @prudential_investment_managers
- @cederberg_ridge
- @prudential_pe_peplett

The photo with the most likes and shares combined wins. The winner will be announced at prize-giving on the final day.
